

POLICE DEPARTMENT.

The 10th November 1893.

NOTICES.

Is hereby given that a new class will be opened in connection with the Police School at Bangalore in January 1894, for training candidates for the grades of Inspector and Jamadar.

2. Applications from candidates seeking admission into the Training class should reach the Inspector General of Police on or before the 30th December 1893, and the candidates should personally present themselves at the Office of the Inspector General of Police at Bangalore on the 8th January 1894.

3. Preference will be given to the sons and relations of officers in the Mysore Government employ and of other respectable persons residing in the Province.

4. Applicants should possess the following qualifications:—

- (a) They should be of good physique and at least 5 feet 6 inches in height with a chest measurement of not less than 32 inches, not older than 25 years or less than 18 years of age.
- (b) They should have passed the Matriculation Examination. If not, they will have to pass an entrance examination of the late Middle School Standard in Reading, Dictation, Arithmetic, Grammar, Geography and Composition in the Kanarese or English language.
- (c) They should produce a certificate from one of the Gazetted Officers or any respectable person in the Province, showing their connections and status in life and testifying to their good conduct.

5. Selection will be made by the Inspector General with reference to the qualifications above named. Such of the candidates as may be selected by the Inspector General will be examined by the Senior Surgeon, and if passed fit by that Officer, will be admitted into the Police School.

6. A number not exceeding 30 candidates will be selected for this class and instruction will be given in the following subjects:—

Surveying.
Geometrical Drawing.
Photography.
Indian Penal Code.
Criminal Procedure Code.

Evidence Act.
Medical Jurisprudence.
Police Rules and Circulars.
Drill and shooting.
Equitation.

Ambulance work such as dressing wounds and restoring animation to persons apparently dead from drowning, and the practical work of a Station House Officer.

7. Such of the candidates as have already passed the Criminal branch of the Local Service Examination will be exempted from passing an examination in the Codes, but they will be required to undergo a course of instruction in the other subjects and to pass an examination in them.

V. P. MADHAVA RAO,
Inspector General of Police.

The 13th November 1893.

INFORMATION WANTED.

The body of a female, name, caste, &c., not known, was found floating on the 6th September 1893, in Jinigal Munireddi's kunte about $\frac{1}{4}$ th of a mile west of Singena Agrahar, in the limits of Hebbagodi Station, Anekal Taluk, embracing a child in her arms.

Marks of identification.

Woman.—Dark color, round face; height—5 feet 5 inches; age—about 30 years; clothes on person—an ordinary sadi and had another drawn over the child, had 2 brass bangles on the right wrist and 2 copper rings on the right ring finger and 12 earthen bangles on the left wrist and a glass ring bordered with tin; and two bronze rings and a "minchu" on the 2nd and 4th fingers of each foot.

Child.—Dark color, round face, aged about $2\frac{1}{2}$ years. Sex.—female. Had 3 earthen bangles on each wrist and a chintz (squares) coat with 2 glass buttons on. A thread of orange color had been tied to the left arm.

It is requested that particulars known or information gained, with regard to the deceased woman and the child, will be communicated to the Superintendent of Police, Bangalore District.

C. DEVARAJ ABB,
Supt. of Police, Bangalore.